UPROAR IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OVER KITCHENER.

Irish Denunciation Stirs English Wrath-French Deputies in Riot.

LONDON, June 5.-By the adop- a riot by remarking that Lord debate, the House of Commons today granted Lord Kitchener £50,000

By an odd coincidence, it was just House voted Gen. Kitchener £30,000 ($150,000) on account of the Soudan campaign.

Mr. Redmond, during the debate said Lord Kitchener had caused had warred on women.

This caused an uproar in the House cdmond was unable to proceed. Later, when Mr. Balfour moved Ir'h members retaliated and the Speaker was compelled to appeal for

In the House of Lords the Premier, Lord Salisbury, paid a high tribute to the colonial troops. He said England was never safer than during the period of the war.

In accordance with the King's message to the House of Commons yesterday the Government leader, A. J. Bal-£50,000 ($250,000) to Lord Kitchener.

Mr. Balfour, in supporting the motion referred to Lord Kitchener's rapid promotion. He said it had been given to few public servants to compass so much work for their country in so short a

William Redmond (Irish Nationalist.) started what developed into almost tion of the cloture, thus cutting off Kitchener would go down to history as a General who had "made war on women and children." This remark called forth loud cries of "Withdraw" and appeals to the Chairman to call Mr. Redmond to order. The Chairman said the expression used was not disorderly, but a majority of the three years ago to-day that the House refused to listen any further to Mr. Redmond and interrupted him with all kinds of shouts.

After a quarter of an hour spent by Mr. Redmond in fruitless endeavor to gain a hearing, the closure was moved. The closure was adopted by 273 to 136 votes and the grant of £50,000 to Lord Citchener was carried by 380 to 44 votes. The minority consisted of Irish Nationalists and two or three Radicals

Chevalier Alberto de Bassini, formerly court singer to King Luis of Portugal, went to the East Fifty-seventh street Municipal Court to-day just to find out who was the complainant who charged him with the crime of feeding a few tarrying cats whose owners had closed up their houses and gone to the country for the summer.

Mme, de Bassini was serving midday luncheon to seventeen of these described.

Erick W. Steele represented the Department of Health at the hearing, and Judge Josephs set the case for Thurs, day, June 12.

"I shall be in court at that time." said the Chevaller, "because I want to know to starving cats and Judge Josephs set the case for Thurs, day, June 12.

No. 171 East Ninety-first street, when a man from the Health Department served a summons on the Chevalier, saying at the same time that it would be withdrawn if the Chevalier would dismiss the cats. But when he refused to say who had enade the complaint the Chevalier, who is a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in Naples, declared he would go to court just to find out who complained against him. He says he wants to learn if the laws of this State forbid the feeding of a starving animal if it does not happen to belong to you.

In court the Chevalier dramatically declared that he would not employ counsel to defend the case, and that he would be satisfied to go to the electric chair in defense of his right to feed all the cats he wanted to.

Donahue complained to the policeman of a man who had been annoying his daughter. The policeman abused Donahue, clubbed him and then arrested him on a charge of assault. As is usual in such cases pressure had been brought upon Donahue and he wanted to withdraw his charge, but Deputy Commissioner Thurston made him tell his story. For the fourth time during the session a policeman under the influence of liquor was arraigned for trial. This was Patroiman Thomas Cunningham, of the West Twentleth street station. He was accused of being drunk on Decoration Day.

Cunningham braced himself and entered an excuse. He said he had been on duty for nearly forty-eight hours and was dizzy.
